

George Washington

"It is infinitely better to have a few good men than many indifferent ones."

---

---

---

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace."

---

---

---

"Few men have virtue to withstand the highest bidder."

---

---

---

"Happiness and moral duty are inseparably connected."

---

---

---